

Neena & Dedic

Thank you so much for considering us to be the adoptive parents of your baby! We know this must be an incredibly difficult decision and we both appreciate the courage and strength you have to do this. Making an adoption plan for your child is an amazingly selfless act and a true testament to the love you must have for your unborn child.

About Us

We met in college as young Computer Information Systems majors and have been married for 16 years! We started out as best friends before dating and that relationship has blossomed into a loving marriage. We have a stable, strong marriage, based on honesty, trust, and mutual respect. We have a huge family on both sides of the family. Neena's side is primarily in the US, while Dedic's side is split between the US, Italy, and Venezuela. The ENTIRE family is ecstatic at the prospect of having a new baby in the family! We have lots of parents, aunts, uncles, siblings, cousins, nieces, and nephews who are ready and waiting to shower the new baby with love!

Neena (About Dedic)

Dedic is the most patient, caring, and gentle person I have ever met. He is very friendly (in a quiet way) and gets along with everyone he meets. He has a genuineness about him that attracts people to him wherever he goes. He loves children, and is very close to all of our nieces and nephews, as well as our friends' children. He is a man of God and lives his life with honesty, integrity, love and respect. Dedic is also extremely intelligent and has excelled at his job as technology consultant providing consistent financial stability. He is my best friend and my soul mate. I am very blessed to call him my husband!

Dedic (About Neena)

Neena is an intelligent, patient, caring, magnetic, and extremely lovable person. She makes everyone in her life feel as if they are the most important person to her with her genuine personality. It is no coincidence that she is the favorite aunt of all her nieces and nephews. She is a woman of God and lives her life with honesty, integrity, respect and unconditional love. She is an extremely talented cook and loves making meals for our friends and family. We have been together for 16 years, and I am not only blessed to have a beautiful wife but also a soul mate and best friend!

Home Sweet Home

We are blessed to live in a beautiful lake community with lots of families with young children. It is very kid-friendly with a water park, complete with lazy river, pools, and a large kid zone. The neighborhood has lots of walking trails and biking trails and it is very common to see a family of 4 getting in their golf cart to head over to one of the neighborhood parks or recreational areas. We also have a 300 acre lake that is fully functional and on nice days, you will often find us on the water in our boat enjoying the weather!

Our Promise to You

We promise to always love and honor your baby. We promise to offer your child all of the opportunities life has to offer and to give them the best education possible. We promise to encourage all of their dreams and support their goals as they go through life. We promise to raise your child in a Christian home and love them unconditionally. We want you to know that they will never want for anything and will always know that they have a loving birth mother who made the ultimate sacrifice for her baby's happiness and made our family complete!

Thank you for taking the time to read this letter and for considering us to become adoptive parents of your baby.

May God's peace be with you always,

Neena and Dedic
